Download for: If you are looking for free coloring apps for adults, check out our complete reviews of the best. All have free pages and colors. You'll also learn which subscriptions are worth it! When I thought about reviewing coloring apps for adults, something came to mind right away. Adult coloring is supposed to be relaxing, and even escape from electronic devices. So what is dealing with adult coloring apps? Why use them on your adult coloring book and pencils? I'm not going to lie - I was skeptical of adult coloring apps. So I uploaded all these to review and gave them an honest go. . . Then I discovered: adult coloring apps are relaxing! Why Adult coloring apps here are the most important things I noticed: I don't have to break books and colored pencils. Sometimes I don't like to have supplies everywhere it's much less expensive than books, pencils, markers, etc. If you are looking for an inexpensive hobby, each of these applications has a free option. Some are better than others, which I touch on in every review. These apps are ideal for waiting rooms, font in DMV, anytime you get bored and don't want to be on Facebook or some other app. They're still comforting me. Yes, it's on an electronic screen, but I can still get out. Free coloring apps are just true free coloring app in the bouquet is color me: coloring book for adults app. All pages are free, but a lot of options are limited without Another application, coloring book for adults, has all the free colors and a few pages. . . So if you like playing with color, and won't get bored with the same pages, try that one too. In the world of free adult coloring apps, most options aren't completely free! Better than adult coloring apps after reviewing these adult coloring apps, I love them all – but pigment and color therapy are my specific front runners (reviews below). I've already bought a color therapy subscription, and I'm thinking of pigment too. Review adult coloring apps these coloring apps are in preferential order! 1. COLOR THERAPY THIS APP HAS SO FAR BEEN MY FAVORITE ARTWORK FROM ALL OF THE COLORING APPS FOR ADULTS! The categories look simple: classic, seasonal, animals, art, fashion, etc. . But the graphics are really cool. There are cityscapes, women, famous paintings, dreamcatchers, marine life, peacock, words, holidays, and more! These are similar to the drawings you might see in the actual coloring book. In terms of colors, you can get 30 free colors to start within the solid core panel and 24 under the basic gradient panel. You can earn extra colors by sharing a piece of art, but really good paintings (including skin colors!) can only be purchased. I love this app enough to buy a subscription. Subscription - You can buy individual color packs for $1.99 and individual color drawings for $99. If you upgrade to Pro, you'll get 700 solid colors, 700 graded colors, featured frames and songs, and ads are removed for $8.99. There is no recurring subscription to this Pro account. . . Just buy once! 2. PIGMENT this is the closest to the real coloring you can possibly get - this adult coloring app is really amazing. Unlike any other application, you can choose brushes that allow you to color* by sliding your finger across the screen. You can fill out like other apps by clicking only in areas, but if you like it, you can choose from a variety of 10 other brushes that will allow you to get a real coloring experience. Some brushes come with a premium membership, but that's only three of them. You get seven non-membership brushes. In addition brushes, there are options for coloring within the lines (or not), choosing multiple areas simultaneously to color by tapping. You can also use an eraser to create some unique effects, so you'll feel like a real coloring artist with this app! I love art and it's a weekly artists feature - with some free pages and some that you can access with a premium membership. Depending on my number, I can access 234 colors for free, and you can lighten or dim those colors when you select. So the options are really endless! Subscribe - You can get a free 7-day trial for premium access. It's $7.99 per month or $39.99 if you sign up for a year. You'll get 600 pages+ and distinctive brushes, exclusive color palettes and new books every week. To remove the watermark on the drawing, you'll have Be a premium subscription. 3. COLORFLY (ALSO ON GOOGLE PLAY) THIS IS A DIFFERENT ADULT COLORING APP THAN THE ONE THAT CAME IN #9. Make sure you don't confuse them as it's the one in the character of the difference in name! When you open the app, you are immediately taken to a gallery where you can choose a free daily page or choose from one of the following free categories: Animal KingdomMandala WorldZen SpiritPixel Art each of these categories has about 8-10 free coloring pages. The following categories are available with premium membership: secret garden, heart of love, mandala world 2, special dates, flowers, letter, food, people, zodiac, special weekend in terms of colors, you can get tons to choose from about 96 for free. Under the solid category, you'll get basic (24), dynamic (24), classic (24). Then you get 24 gradient colors, which are very cool! If you purchase a premium membership, you have access to a lot of colors. Choosing colors is easy, and reversing color selection or deleting color is as well. Subscription - US$2.99 per week gives you full access to all premium and new content every day, and there are no ads. You can cancel any time. Start with a free 7-day trial. If you choose a one-month membership, it is $7.99, and Year 1 is $39.99. 4. Color ME - coloring book for adults (also on Google Play) I tried to find completely free adult coloring apps, this is the only one that does not have a subscription. In terms of coloring apps for adults, it is not complicated to use opened, and then you have more than 250 images of color. New is added regularly. The graphics range from more basic to complex, and there are a lot of hadala. You'll see some animals, flowers and people too. You certainly won't get bored! There are 10 colour palettes with 9 colors each, all free of charge. No gradients or anything really interesting - but you can't complain for free, right? There are enough colors to make your graphics fun, and sometimes this is all that is required. As far as coloring apps are free to get you started, this one is perfect. Subscribe - can't get one - for free! 5. COLORART I really like the function of this adult coloring app! I don't know – there's something about it that makes it easy to use. When you open it, you are taken directly to a screen to select the drawing from several categories. In the five main categories - mandala, vase, animals, patterns, and holidays - you have been given 10 to 11 free coloring designs for each. The other categories are probably one free design each (if so) and the rest is available for purchase. I love the free designs here and you get some very detailed ones (better than most free coloring apps), which is nice. And some of the paid are really fun! I love the colors in this app. You'll get 4 paintings with 11 colors each - a total of 44 colors for free. There is a palette you can open with 11 more colors by sharing a complete picture, and then 16 more panels with 11 colors each if you The colors are very beautiful and I definitely wanted to unlock them all! Subscription - A free trial is available for one week. One-month subscription is $4.99 and 1 year is $34.99. The subscription opens color palettes and removes ads. 6. Coloring book for adults there are not many places to go in this coloring app, which for some people will be a bonus. You basically have two places. . . The main library is then inside the drawing. There is no gallery or anything fancy, but there is one great feature on other coloring apps for adults - all 168 colors available in the app are free! I absolutely love it if you're looking for coloring apps for free adults, then you get a lot here without paying. You get 8 free graphics in the relaxation category then there are about 10 other categories or so with one free fee for each of these categories. So if you like a lot of colors and don't mind coloring the same thing over and over again, this is for you. Of course, you have the option to buy a subscription and give yourself the best choice of graphics. Subscription - You have three options to subscribe: 1) remove ads for $3.99, 2) get individual coloring books for $3.99 each or 3) get all coloring books for $19.99. I think you're removing ads with a purchase of $19.99, but I'm not clear. The nice thing is that it's not annually. . . It's only once 7. Adult COLORING BOOK this is an interesting adult coloring app because it is designed to actually look like mini coloring books within the app. Under each section (plants, mandala, animals, holiday, animals, etc.) you have many free designs, and then much more that are available with subscription. A free 24-hour daily design is also available. What I like is that under neath every book there is a hyperlink that says get inspired and takes you to the gallery to show you how others have colored this design. It's nice to get involved you can also color the design several times and save it in your book (and it appears on the left). Kind of interesting the way he put it. And I love it. In terms of colors, you start with a basic palette of 24 called core. It's definitely not enough, so you'll want to get subscribed or jump through hoops to download a few extra boards (you can like the app on Instagram, share graphics, etc.). I still feel like they're not giving me enough for free, honestly. Subscription - To join an adult coloring book in addition, you will spend $4.99 per month or $22.99 per year. You get a free trial for a week if you like. 8. RECOLOR (also on Google Play) This app reminded me of Colorfy but it has more free pages apparently available – 27 total. The difference is that paid photos look a lot better than what Colorfy offers! Some are very detailed and some are very basic. . . But there are a lot of options (words, mandala, people – some of which are odd like a rabbit being pulled out of a hat). Unusual 3D coloring drawings and You can create your own coloring pages by scanning a picture or opening a photo you've saved. For the scan option, you get one free picture a day, then you have to wait to scan again. Color palettes, there are 16 available with 9 colors for each total of 144 free colors. I am very happy with the colors available, as they have a lot of shades that I love. You can create your own panels if you like, but this doesn't create colors - this is just a reorganization in the app to the panels you enjoy. Gradients come with a paid subscription. Subscription - A free trial is available again unlimited for 7 days. You can pay monthly for $7.99 or annually for $39.99. This subscription gives you access to 900+ photos and new ones every day. You'll also get access to all panels and effects. 9. COLORFY (also on Google Play) When I tried out this coloring app for adults, I was a little surprised at how few free photos were available. I've used this app before, and it seems that in the past there was a lot of free. So to write this article, there are only 10 free graphics listed under the basic category, and frankly, the artwork is not very good. While there are additional free pages available, you should dig for them. There is usually one at the bottom of each category (though not all the time). There are also free colors, but there are only 27 of them. . . The rest require subscription. This is the same with gradient colors. I will say that the bonus of this app is that you can create your own pages with a picture. You have to take the picture and you won't be able to select it from the gallery, but it's a nice touch. I seem to be able to do it for free, as well. Subscription - A free colorfy Plus trial is available. One month is going to cost you $7.99 (or $2.99 per week if you choose this route) and 1 year will cost you $39.99. The subscription includes all photos, more than 210 colors, not ads. Which of these adult coloring apps are your favorites? Let me know in the comments! Also if you've tried some adult coloring apps I didn't mention, let me know that too. Also.
